All events will be presented at the Kokomo High School auditorium.

Back On Broadway - Sunday, September 8, 2013, 2:30 pm

With multiple scene and costume changes, this multi-talented cast of 10 brings to life the most popular scenes and songs from new Broadway classics and hits from award-winning revivals. These include Mama Mia, Mary Poppins, South Pacific, 9 to 5 and many more.

The Gothard Sisters - Sunday, October 6, 2013, 2:30 pm

You are likely to see fast fiddling numbers with lively choreography, special songs and ballads, champion Irish dancing, and family entertainment at its best. There will also be lively music on the guitar and bodhran (Irish drum) with enchanting vocals in a variety of genres and great storytelling.

The Diamonds - Saturday, November 23, 2013, 7:30 pm

Their timeless rock and roll hit, Little Darlin', was released in 1957 and has been dubbed The National Anthem of Rock and Roll, selling 20 million copies worldwide. This diverse quartet with a live band appeals to all age groups, performing classic songs that the audience understands, remembers and can actually sing.

Yang & Olivia Liu - Friday, February 21, 2014, 7:30 pm

Unique internationally known husband-wife piano/violin team blends cultural nuances in many classical favorites. Beyond their technical brilliance and virtuosity, they communicate their message of faith, love and joy through their music.

Tom Gustin Big Band - Saturday, March 15, 2014, 7:30 pm

From the traditional sound of the 40's Big Band Swing Era to the more recent influence of Jazz and Light Rock, this 19-piece band entertains both young and old with its unique blend of standard favorite hits and custom arrangements. The band embraces the traditions of musical excellence, showmanship and playfulness to create an unforgettable performance.

The Unexpected Surfer Boys - Friday, May 2, 2014, 7:30 pm

The first half of this tribute features classic hits of the iconic group, The Beach Boys, including Surfin' USA, California Girls and Good Vibrations. The second half of the program is a Tribute to Broadway and will feature songs from familiar Broadway shows. All four of these members have performed on Broadway or in touring productions of Broadway shows.
